NEW YORK, May 8, 18: Bill for Injunction. In the Circuit Court in the District of Columbia, sitting in Chan-

Christopher Adams, complamant

James Guthrie. Amos Adams, issue N. Comstock, Defendants. Samuel Byington, and Richard Wallach,

THIS bill of complaint in the above stated caus states, that the said complainant on or about the twenty-fifth day of November A. D. 1851, entered into a contract with the United States government. agreeing to supply the government with five mil-hon of brick for the extension of the Capitol. That said complainant, on or about the 12th day of January. A. D 1852, assigned to one Samuel Strong, the said contract; the said Strong agreeing and promising to pay to said complainant the sum of tour thousand dollars.

The bill further states that the said Strong, on or about the 2d day of February, A. D. 1852, as signed the said contract, or one moiety thereof, to Amos Adams and Isaac N Comstock, of the city of Albany and State of New York, and received from the said Adams and Comstock their obligation or promise for the payment of four thousand dollars. or thereabout, as well as a lien of thirty per cent.

on the moneys to be paid by the government on sald contract, until the said sum of four thousand dol ars should be paid; which lien said Strong duly assigned to the complainant in this bill. The bill further states that sometime in the year 1852 the said Amos Adams and Isaas N. Comstock assigned their right, title and interest in the contract to one Samuel Byington as partner and associate of Richard Wallach, the said Byington and Wallach having notice of the said lien of thirty per cent. on the moneys to be paid by the government on said contract. The object of said bill is to obtain an injunction The object of said will is to obtain an injunction against said defendants inhibiting the said James Guthrie, and all persons acting for him, from paying the said moneys to any of the defendants, or their representatives, and the defendants and their representatives from receiving the said moneys until the sum of thirty-six hun-NOVEL FIES, Inventions, and Curiosities dred deliars, and the interest thereon, should be paid to the complainant or his legal representatives, and such other and further decree as to this court shall seem right and proper. The said Amos Adams and the said Isaac N Comstock, named in the caption and body of the bill, still residing in Albany as aforesaid, beyond the reach of the process of the court.

It is, therefore, by the court ordered this lst day of January. A. D. 1855, that the matters and things stated in the aforesaid bill of complaint against the defendants, shall be taken for confessed against the said Amos Adams and Isaac N. Comstock, and such decree made in the premises against them, and each of them, as court shall deem right, uniers the said defendants appear in the court on or before the second Mon day in May next, and answer the said bill, and show cause if any they have why a decree as prayed for by the complainant should not be Provided the complainant cause this order, and the substance and the object of the said bill of complaint, to be published in some newspaper in the city of Washington, twice a week for six successive weeks, the first insertion thereof to appear at least four months before the second Monday in May next. Given at rules, the first Monday of January, 1855, being the first day of January, 1555. Tost: JOHN A. SMITH, Clerk of the Circuit Court. WASHINGTON CCUNTY, D. C. S. SPENCER, et al.

PAPER MOISTENER.—A new and very neat use ful invention for moistening post office stamps envelopes, sheets in a copying book, counting back bills, &c. This does away with the disagree able method of moistening stamps. &c., with the ongue. It is a patent article, vary simple and cheap, and will be universally adopted as soon as t is seen .- Boston Transcript, Sept. 1854.

PAPER MOISTENER -A new invention for mois ening postage stamps, envelopes, sheets in a copying book, counting bank bills, &c. The common way of mostening stamps with the tongue is very disagreeable and inconvenient, also the usual way of wetting sheets in a copying book, by using a brush which has to be dipped in water, is inconvenient and very slifficult to give paper an even moisture, which is very desirable for copying letters. This article obviates these difficulties, besides being useful for various other purposes. It is also perfectly simple and cheap, and must come into general use .- | Boston Pe Sept., 1851.
